The Consumptive.

Then came consumption with her languid moods,
Her soothing whisper, and her dreams that seek—
To muse themselves in silent solitudes;
She came with hectic glow and wasted cheeks,
And still the maiden pined more wan and weak.
Pale like the second bow; yet would she speak
The words of hope, even while she passed away,
Amid the closing clouds, and faded ray by ray!

The most dreaded of all diseases is that of consumption. Until of late years it has been looked upon by all classes of persons as necessarily fatal. If the first symptoms were attended to, there need be very few die of this once formidable disease. If DR. KEYSER'S PECTORAL SYRUP was used at the first inception of a cough, or sore throat, or a hawking up of blood, it would in the course of a few days, remove the obstruction which causes the cough, and establish the equilibrium of the circulation and thus restore health. DR. KEYSER'S PECTORAL SYRUP is without doubt the most perfect remedy now known for the early stages of coughs or colds, and has cured very many persons who have been deemed hopelessly advanced in consumption.

How absurd then it is for persons to allow themselves to pass into an incurable disease, when it might be arrested in the beginning!

Ask any one pining and wasting away under this disease what were the first causes, and he will tell you that he was out late at a ball, or standing on the street corners, took a chill, which was followed by a cough and hoarseness or sore throat; these were neglected for awhile, and consumption had fastened on the lungs or bronchia, and the whole constitution was gradually giving away under its baneful influence.

We speak of common causes which meet the medical practitioner every day, suppose such person were to take, for a few days, a remedy like Dr. Keyser's Pectoral Syrup. It will infallibly remove from the system the morbid conditions which, if left alone, might end in pulmonary consumption or in the development of pulmonary tubercle. Dr. Keyser's Pectoral Syrup has cured tens of thousands of just such cases as we have named. We meet every day on the street some one who years ago was sentenced to a consumptive's grave, who by the use of Dr. Keyser's Pectoral Syrup is now restored to health and a renewal of life. In summing up we would say that in the beginning of a consumption Dr. Keyser's Pectoral Syrup never fails. In its developed stage it has cured very often. Dr. Keyser uses, however, in advanced stages of the disease another remedy called LUNG CURE or PULMONARY RESTORATIVE, which is one of the most valuable medicines ever compounded for restoring the blood to a healthy and plastic condition, and for restoring and improving not only the digestive organs them selves to full power and efficiency, but at the same time imbuing the chyle with its own wonderful properties, so that it will stimulate the secreting and secerning organs to a healthy and natural action. For all chronic diseases of the lungs and air passages it has no equal. It will carry out of the system all morbid and unhealthy material and replace it with new, and in that way gradually cure disease and restore health.

Dr. Keyser's remedies can be had of most druggists, and at his great medicine store, No. 140 Wood street. Consultation rooms for lung examinations at 120 Penn street, from 8 A. M., until 4 P. M.

The Bill for the Public Sale of Gold Rejected.

RECONSTRUCTION COMMITTEE AT WORK ON A NEW BILL.

Report from the President on the New Orleans Riots.

THE SUITS AGAINST REBEL AGENTS IN ENGLAND.

THE RIGHTS OF REBEL ATTORNEYS TO PRACTICE IN THE WASHINGTON COURTS.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 29th, 1867.

THE VETO OF THE NEBRASKA BILL.

The President, to-day, returned to the Senate, with his objections, the bill for the admission of Nebraska. He refers to the fundamental condition precedent, that suffrage shall be allowed without distinction of race or color. This condition is not mentioned in the original enabling act; was not contemplated at the time of its passage; was not sought by the people themselves; has not been applied to the inhabitants of any State asking admission, and is in direct conflict with the Constitution adopted by the people, and declared in the preamble to be republican in its form of Government, for in that instrument the exercise of the elective franchise and right to hold office are expressly limited to white citizens of the United States. Congress thus undertakes to authorize and compel the Legislature to change a Constitution, which it is declared in the preamble has received the sanction of the people, and which, by this bill, is accepted, ratified and confirmed by the Congress of the nation.

The President proceeds to show that the first and third sections of the bill exhibit further incongruity. "If," he says, "Congress is satisfied that Nebraska at the present time possesses sufficient population to entitle her to full representation in the councils of the nation, and her people desire a State government, good faith would seem to demand that she should be admitted, without further requirements than those expressed in the enabling act, with all of which, it is asserted in the preamble, her inhabitants have complied."

THE NEW ORLEANS RIOTS.

The President, in compliance with a resolution of the House, transmitted, to-day, voluminous documents on the subject of the New Orleans riots, in July last. These include four hundred foolscap pages of testimony taken before the Military Board convened at the instance of General Baird, and consisting of Gens. Mower, Quinby, Gregg and "Baldy" Smith, together with their report, in which they condemn the conduct of Mayor Monroe, and say but for the declaration of martial law by General Baird, and the presence of troops, fire and bloodshed would have raged through the night in all the negro quarters of the city, and the lives and property of Unionists and northern men would have been at the mercy of the mob. The conservators of peace being for the time the instigators of violence, nothing would have remained but an arming for self defence, and a scene might have ensued unparalleled in the history of any age.

SUITS FOR THE RECOVERY OF REBEL PROPERTY.

The President, to-day, transmitted a large mass of documents to the House, respecting the compromise of certain suits instituted in the English Courts, in behalf of the United States, against Frazier, Trenholm & Company, alleged agents of the so-called Confederate States. It appears that on the 4th of December, Assistant Secretary Seward, in writing to Consul Morse, says, that the arrangement which the latter assumed to make with Mr. Prioleau has been discovered as being wholly without authority.

Assistant Secretary of the Treasury, Chandler, on the 27th of December, wrote a letter to Secretary Seward, saying that certain authority heretofore conferred on Consul Morse has been revoked, and he requests that Mr. Seward will instruct Minister Adams to designate some suitable person to take charge and conclude any unfinished business growing out of the authority conferred upon him, which may still remain in Morse's hands.

Secretary Seward, January 12th, informs Minister Adams that Consul Morse has disobeyed instructions, in making concessions of law, against which he was expressly warned by the Department, and acting without the concurrence of Mr. Adams. Finally, the pretended agreement was one-sided, stipulating absolutely an allowance to Frazier, Trenholm & Co., and not stipulating any special balance whatever to the United States.

Secretary Seward, writing to Consul Dudley, January 14th, 1867, says, in respect to such funds and property as Mr. Morse's authority really applied to, that he was under express instructions to do nothing which should recognize the capacity of the pretended rebel officials or abetters of rebellion, who dealt with them, or make any contract which could give validity to such liens or charges.

THE MISSION TO AUSTRIA.

The correspondence between the Secretary of State and Mr. Motley, Minister to Vienna, was submitted to the Senate to-day. Mr. Seward wrote, November 21st, that he had information that Mr. Motley had expressed disgust at the President's conduct; that he had said he despised American democracy, and loudly proclaimed that an English gentleman was the model of human perfection, and that he had said the President had deserted his pledges and principles in common with Mr. Seward, whose condition was hopelessly degraded. Mr. Motley's denial or confirmation of the statements was required.

Mr. Motley replied at some length, stating that, while he has never concealed his political ideas in favor the re-organization of the South by the Constitutional Amendment, the charges made against him are as false as they are contemptible. He concludes by resigning the mission to Vienna.

REBEL ATTORNEYS APPLYING FOR ADMISSION.

In the Supreme Court of the District of Columbia to-day, Mr. Bradley moved the admission to the bar of Allan B. Magruder, of Virginia, a member of the bar of the old Circuit Court, and now an Attorney and Counseller of the Supreme Court of the United States. It was generally understood that Magruder would be unable to take what is known as the test oath, and this motion was made with a view of ascertaining how this Court regarded the recent decision of the Supreme Court of the United States, as affecting its duties both in regard to the rule it had laid down on the subject. Chief Justice Carter informed Mr. Bradley that to grant his motion and pass an order for admission, would be to set aside the first rule of the Court. Mr. Bradly presumed that when a member of the bar of the Supreme Court applied for admission to this bar he would be admitted as a matter of course, taking such oaths as is prescribed by that tribunal, this court being a branch of the other.

Justice Carter said the question was whether this Court would consent to repeal or modify its own rules.

It was agreed that the argument be heard on Thursday with a full bench.

NEGRO EMIGRANTS.

About one hundred negroes from Salisbury, N. C., passed through Washington this evening on their way to Arkansas, where they are engaged to work on cotton plantations.

BOUNTIES TO SOLDIERS.

Representative Darling has presented to the House a petition signed by over one thousand five hundred veteran soldiers, who request that Congress enact such laws as will secure the payment of bounties to soldiers, who have been discharged from the service by reason of disability other than wounds, and to those who have lost their discharge papers, both classes of these men being now deprived of bounty, under the act of July, 1866.

RECONSTRUCTION COMMITTEE AT WORK.

The Committee on Reconstruction will enter immediately upon the preparation of a proper bill for re-organizing the States, in view of the rejection of the Constitutional amendment, and report at the present session.

A PETITION FROM VIRGINIA.

A delegate from Norfolk, Virginia, has arrived here, bearing a petition to Congress signed by five thousand voters, asking the immediate adoption of some general plan of reconstruction. They also intend to see the President and tell him plainly that under the auspices of his policy the late Confederates are intolerant of Union men, and are constantly visiting the latter with petty persecutions.

NEGRO SCHOOLS AT THE CAPITAL.

The Washington City Councils, after a long debate, have agreed to pay the Trustees of the colored schools nine thousand dollars, that being the amount due by law for that purpose.

THE GOLD BILL REJECTED.

The Senate Finance Committee has rejected the House gold bill, requiring public notice to be given of all rules of gold.

[From Dispatches to the New York Papers.]

The House Military Committee have agreed to transfer the Indian Bureau from the Interior to the War Department.

The Judiciary Committee adhere to their purpose of closing up all old business before commencing the impeachment case.

Dr. Kennedy, formerly Mayor of New Orleans, was examined by the Riot Committee yesterday. His testimony was principally concerning the political status of the city, and the personal habits of the municipal authorities, particularly the police.

Delegations from two-thirds of the Indian tribes in the West are in Washington, invited there by Commissioner Bogy to agree upon treaties.

The action in the House on Mr. Stevens' reconstruction bill, referring it to the Joint Committee, is regarded as fatal to it.

Mr. Clark, of the Currency Printing Bureau, explains the grave fact that several bonds with duplicated numbers have been printed and issued by saying that the numbering machine got out of order.

FROM KANSAS.

The Capitol Buildings of the State—The Word "White" in the Constitution—The Harper's Magazine Hero "Wild Bill."

TOPEKA, KANSAS, January 29.—The proposition before the Legislature to appropriate one hundred thousand dollars to continue the work on the Capitol buildings, will probably be defeated, from the fact that the walls, as now constructed, are crumbling to pieces.

Petitions are coming in from all parts of the State, asking that the word "white" be stricken out of the Constitution. A joint resolution to that effect will undoubtedly pass.

"Wild Bill," so favorably noticed in the last number of Harper's Monthly, is now at Junction City, in this State, and is said to be a gambling bummer of low species.

ST. LOUIS, Jan. 29.—The Democrat's Topeka special says a bill has been introduced into the House, to-day, providing for the assumption by the State of claims growing out of Price's raid during the war.

The House defeated the resolution asking Congress to give lands to establish a Freedmen's university, on the ground that negroes had free access to the Common Schools and all the State universities.

The proposition to amend the Constitution so as to allow negroes to vote was discussed in the House, but without final action. It is said this measure has more than two-thirds majority in the Legislature.

FROM NASHVILLE.

The Legality of the Franchise Law—Impeachment of Judge Frazier, of Nashville.

NASHVILLE, Jan. 29.—A resolution was adopted by the State Senate to-day, authorizing the Governor to employ counsel to defend the cases in the Supreme Court, involving the constitutionality of the franchise law. One of the cases has already been agreed. The other will not be reached for some weeks unless taken up out of order.

In the House the report from the Special Committee recommending the impeachment of Judge Frazier, of the Criminal Court of Davidson county, accompanied with articles of impeachment, was read. Judge Frazier's offense was the liberation from arrest, under a writ of habeas corpus, of members of the Legislature arrested last summer for absenting themselves and leaving the House without a quorum. He will probably be impeached.

CONDENSED TELEGRAMS.

The Lower House of the Illinois Legislature has adopted a resolution giving State aid to the completion of the navy yard at Mound City, on which the United States Government has already expended a hundred thousand dollars.

Reports from the plains say that the recent cold weather has caused much suffering. Many men have been badly frozen, and it is feared that whole trains will be lost.

Yesterday morning several forged $1,000 checks were offered at the different banks in Philadelphia, and the forgeries being well executed, the checks were paid without suspicion. A check was forged on J. D. Boyd, broker, for $1,950, and another on H. F. Lanner for $9,950. Simultaneous efforts were made to victimize every bank in Philadelphia.

A man named John Rund was arrested at Albany yesterday, on a charge of being concerned in the Lord bond robbery in New York. He has been taken there for examination.

The annual report of the Board of Trade of Toronto states that general trade has been in a flourishing condition during the past year, notwithstanding the abrogation of the Reciprocity treaty; but the Canadian Lake shipping has suffered seriously in consequence of being prohibited from carrying American freight from one American port to another, as permitted under the Reciprocity treaty, and that consequently many Canadian vessels have become American by changing their register.

CITY AND SUBURBAN.

THE SEWICKLEY OUTRAGE.

Hearing in the Case of Wm. Laurdermer.

FRIED OYSTERS AS AN ELEMENT OF "SUFFERING."

The Prisoner Held to Bail.

William Laurdermer, the alleged perpetrator of the famous "Sewickley Outrage," had a hearing before Mayor McCarthy at ten o'clock yesterday morning on a charge of rape preferred by Margaret Brush. The examination occasioned great interest, and many spectators were present. As this case has gained such wide spread notoriety, we give a full report of the important points brought out in the testimony. Mayor McCarthy—very justifiably we think, in view of the odium and positive abuse that has been heaped upon him because of the circumstances of the arrest and imprisonment of the accused—admitted testimony concerning the mode of arrest and the manner of treatment to which the prisoner has been subjected since his capture. It will be seen that the "filthy den," the "jug of water shoved in," the "loaf now and then," the "no change of clothing since his arrest" and all the other details of Bastile treatment, of which we have heard so much, are pure myths. It will also be seen that the request of the prisoner, both before and after his incarceration, was that the fact of his arrest be kept secret, and that he be kept in the lock-up instead of being sent to jail. If the sworn statements of witnesses are to be accepted in preference to the irresponsible assertions of captious persons, no prisoner could fare better than has Laurdermer. As to his having no communication with outsiders, we learned from his own lips that he conversed daily and nightly through the partition with other prisoners in the lock-up, and two hours after he requested to be placed among the other prisoners his request was complied with. Below we give the testimony:

Margaret Brush, sworn—I was living at Mrs. Hamilton's in Sewickley on the night of the 11th of November last; Bob Boyd came into the house after me that night; I wouldn't go out; Bill Kennedy next came in, and said there were two girls down the road who wanted to see me; I went past the United Presbyterian and Methodist churches with him, and met Boyd, Lee Hamilton and Bill Laurdermer, coming up with the girls, Maggie and Grace Nesly; we all went down to the station, and then came back up the street. Hamilton and Kennedy then took the girls to church. Laurdermer and Boyd stayed with me. When a little below D. N. White's they pulled me around, then threw me down and held me there. I screamed and resisted. Boyd violated me first, then Laurdermer, and then Kennedy and Hamilton came up and did the same, after which they all left me except Kennedy, who walked up the lane with me. I went to the gate of the church to see "Pap" Brush, my half brother, but didn't see him. I then went to my Uncle John Carson's house, where I remained over night.

Cross-Examined—This occurred on Sunday evening. It was a pleasant night, and the moon was shining brightly. The nearest House was Mr. White's, over in the field. Had anybody been at home, think they could have heard me scream. Had seen Laurdermer before, but was not acquainted with him. Boyd and Laurdermer prevented me from going to church. Laurdermer held me down, after Boyd threw me down. I was sensible all the time. That man (pointing to prisoner,) is Laurdermer. I never went out with Hamilton before. Nobody came to my assistance. They kept me there about two hours. Laurdermer tore my dress when I was thrown down.

Ward Nicholson, sworn—I had learned that Laurdermer was in Athens, Ohio, and went after him, I arrived there about eleven o'clock at night; sent into the house after him; he came out; I put him on the cars, and reached Loveland at four o'clock, A. M.; before reaching there he promised to come on quietly, and I removed his handcuffs; took him to a hotel, gave him water, soap, &c., a drink, and his breakfast; took the cars for this city; tried to get a sleeping car, but could not; on the road he requested me to let no one see him, or know anything about his arrest; I got off with him at the South Pittsburgh Depot; came over and put him in the watch house; took him two meals the next day myself; brought him fried oysters; told the day Captain to get him anything he wanted at Reineman's; the prisoners are generally fed from John Brown's. Thought better food could be obtained at Reineman's. The reason I got better food for him than usual was that he had behaved himself so well in my charge that I had promised he should be treated as well as possible. He once made a request for a change of clothing which was not complied with for forty-eight hours in consequence of my absence from town. He said he did not wish to go to jail. He once asked to be let out two hours thereafter. He was confined in the best part of the watch house. It is lighter, is cleaned and aired daily. He was kept in cigars, and had soap, towels, a basin and water.

Cross-examined—I first asked him if he wished to go to jail within a day or two after his imprisonment, and several times thereafter.

Paul Reineman, sworn—I work in my father's eating house, No. 67 Smithfield street. I supplied Laurdermer with food for about four weeks. Sent him just as good food, and as much of it, as we give anybody. Sent him two meals per day. He had beef and pork steak, veal cutlets, fried oysters, &c. Robert Graham called for the meals.

Robert Graham sworn—Have charge of the lock-up during the day. Laurdermer has been in my charge. He has been fed twice each day. I got the food at Reineman's. He never complained about it but once or twice and then that there was not enough of bread. After this more bread was sent, and he often left some. He was confined in the best part of the lock-up. It is kept in better condition, is warmer, cleaner, and better aired than other parts. I have been an officer two years. Laurdermer's treatment has been better than that of any other prisoner confined in the watch-house.

Mayor McCarthy here stated that as he thought it might be necessary to confine the prisoner for a long time, in order to farther the ends of justice, he had determined that he should be treated as well as possible. He had mitigated the rigors of his confinement in deference to what he supposed would be the opinion of a censorious public.

No testimony for the defence was presented, and the prisoner was held to bail in the sum of $5,000 to answer the charge at Court.

J. W. F. White, Esq., appeared for the prosecution, and J. Cohen, Esq., for the defence. The prisoner will probably be able to procure bail to-day.

Skating Carnival.

Yesterday afternoon over two thousand people visited the Central Skating Park to witness the contest for the prize of three hundred dollars in greenbacks and the gold medal to be awarded to the best lady skater. At half-past three o'clock, Miss Gertie Frothingham, of New York and Miss Katie Forsyth entered for the contest. Their performance on the ice was admirable and elicited much applause. The judges after some deliberation unanimously decided in favor of Miss Frothingham, she being considered the most scientific skater. The decision was seconded by the spectators as entirely satisfactory. After the ladies retired Messrs. Collie Curtiss and Goodrich, of Chicago, Captain Miner, of Detroit, and a few other gentlemen, who are here to contest for the four hundred dollar prize, entered and performed some of their scientific feats, completely bewildering the natives by their exploits on the ice. Miss Plympton, the infant skatorial Queen, only seven years old, is quite a prodigy. To witness her skating is worth the price of admission. To-day the grand contest of the season will take place, the prize being four hundred dollars to the best gentleman skater. We imagine the judges will have a difficult task to perform when they come to decide on the best skater, when the contestants are all at the head of the ladder in their profession.

Assault With Intent to Kill.

Alexander Hall, a colored man, residing in the Seventh ward, made information before Alderman Sutherland yesterday, charging Abraham Reed, another colored man, with assault and battery with intent to kill. It is alleged that, on Monday night, the negroes were having a secret meeting, at which the deponent was present. The accused entered and seized hold of him, calling him vile names. He then drew a knife and struck Reed with it three times, cutting him in the left cheek and the left hand, and also cutting his coat considerably. After this he drew a revolver and was about to fire, when Reed snatched it out of his hands. Reed then started to run, Hall pursuing him and throwing a brick after him, which, fortunately, missed him. A hearing was had yesterday, and the defendant, in default of $1,000 bail, was committed for trial.

Off the Track.—The six o'clock accommodation train on the Pennsylvania Railroad ran off the track at Wilkinsburg, when on its way to the city. The entire train was off and was detained some two hours. No damage done except to sharpen the appetites of the workingmen who were kept from their suppers by the accident.

United States District Court.

Before Hon. WILSON MCCANDLESS.

This court met on Tuesday at the usual hour, ten o'clock.

Joseph Weaver, a resident of Allegheny county, was placed on trial upon an indictment charging him with passing a counterfeit twenty dollar note in the resemblance and similitude of a twenty dollar note on the Fourth National Bank of Philadelphia, known as National currency, with intent to cheat and defraud John F. Hager, tavern keeper on Penn street, of this city. The accused was tried last week, but the jury failed to agree, one of them holding out for conviction and the remainder persisting in a verdict of acquittal. The case, as presented by Mr. Carnahan, on behalf of the Government, was somewhat stronger than on the previous occasion. The note was proven to have been passed on last Christmas day by the accused, who took dinner at Hager's tavern, in company with Napoleon Morgan. In paying for the meal for himself and companion, he tendered the $20 bill and received the change. Next day the bill was discovered by Hager to be counterfeit.

Common Pleas.

Before Hon. Thomas Mellon.

Antoinette Beaumont vs. Alexander Nimick & Co. Plaintiff is possessed of a house and lot on the north side of Second street, between Third and Wood, in the City, in which she has resided since April, 1863. Defendants own a lot adjoining, and by their servants and agents have thrown, piled and deposited thereon large quantities of pig iron, blooms and heavy metals, resting great portions against the plaintiff's dwelling house, the foundation of which, by reason, as is alleged, of the heavy weight against the walls, is cracked and in imminent danger of falling down; the walls have become crooked, the windows and doors twisted and out of place, and the dwelling otherwise so greatly damaged that it will have to be taken down and rebuilt. By reason of the aforesaid grievances the plaintiff claimed damages to the extent she has suffered. Kirkpatrick and Mellon for plaintiff. J. H. Bailey, Esq., for defendants. On trial.

At the Poor Farm.

We paid a brief visit yesterday to the City Poor Farm, and under the escort of the very courteous and efficient Superintendent, William Bullock, Esq., were shown through the various departments. There are at present one hundred and ninety inmates receiving the hospitality of the city at the Farm. Of these one hundred and one are women, seventy-one are men, and eighteen are children. Forty-nine unfortunates are inmates of the insane department. The health of the inmates is remarkably good, there being but very few cases of sickness. We were struck with the air of comfort that pervaded every portion of the premises, and the manifest efforts made on all sides to render the situation of the unfortunate people who are compelled to seek refuge there, as pleasant as possible. We have never seen this institution surpassed by any of the kind anywhere. A visit to the school room is particularly interesting. Eleven children receive instruction there, and have a room as well fitted up as those in most of our school houses. Of the many interesting "cases" which came under our observation—the cases with a history—we have not room to speak. Our best thanks are due to Mrs. M'Kelvy, the kind Matron, and Mr. Bullock, the Superintendent, for courtesies received. Not the least of the pleasures of the trip was the exceedingly enjoyable "sleighride" there and back. The roads were in splendid condition, and with the best of company, a speedy team, and a comfortable sleigh, it was a ride to be remembered.

An Urgent Word to the Charitable.

There is a great deal of suffering from absolute want in our city. The Lay Missionary brings before me cases of utter destitution of food and fire. The intense and continued cold aggravates such suffering.

Laboring men, willing and anxious to work, whose wages permitted no savings, are out of employment. Widows and orphans are found without any food for more than a day at a time; without fuel and with scanty clothing. I earnestly ask money and other means of relief for these sufferers.

I pledge myself to secure due precaution in distributing any such relief. All, of every religious name who ask and need, shall be helped. This appeal will bring many applicants for help to the Lay Missionary, but I hope and pray that it may first bring ample means for such help.

I therefore request and appoint the following gentlemen to receive any money or other means which the benevolent will entrust to my care and disposal for the relief of the needy; or such aid may be sent at once to me:

Mr. H. J. Lynch, 96 Market street.
Mr. Joseph H. Hill, Bank of Commerce.
Mr. T. K. McKnight, 128 Wood street.
Mr. G. P. Van Doran, Tradesmen's Bank.
Mr. Olmsby Phillips, Second near Wood street.
Dr. L. H. Harris, B. A. Fahnestock's, First and Wood.
Mr. J. H. Morris, Church Book Store, corner of Seventh and Smithfield.

JOHN B. KERFOOT, Bishop, 119 Penn street.

Sale of Real Estate.

Messrs. Macrum & Carlisle, trimming merchants, No. 19 Fifth street, have concluded the purchase of a lot adjoining Mr. Dennison's trimming house, Fifth street, for which they have paid the handsome sum of $38,000. The lot runs back to an alley, and is 172 feet deep, with front of 22½ feet on Fifth street. Starting from a depth of 120 feet the lot takes in a strip 52 feet deep by 20 feet wide, which is in the rear of Mr. Dennison's store. The lot adjoining, next to Bank Block, 22¼ feet front by 163 feet depth, has been purchased by J. St. Clair Gray, Esq., for $32,000. Both parties will eventually put up, on these sites, buildings in keeping with the first class houses in that neighborhood.

Admitted to Practice.—Yesterday, in the United States Court, on motion of Hon. S. A. Purviance, Isaac Ash, Esq., was admitted to practice before that bench. Mr. Ash is an accomplished and well read legal gentleman, and although not long admitted to the bar has made rapid and steady advancement in his profession. His office is at Oil City, where he has built up a very creditable practice. We wish him success.

A Brisk City.—Oil City is getting her name up. One day last week they had a dog fight on the Allegheny bridge; a fist fight between two men for the sake of establishing the character of one or the other, and an exhibition of genuine rowdyism, some young men chasing a party of young girls over the bridge and frightening them nearly to death.

The Case of Agnes Brown.

We yesterday morning published, without in any manner vouching for the truth of it, the statement of a Scotch girl named Agnes Brown, concerning an outrage which she alleged had been committed on her last summer at Sewickley. We yesterday learned that she had made another statement, differing in some respects from the statement which we had published, and also that some points contained in her story as given to and by us were not strictly true. We made careful inquiries of parties conversant with the case and also visited the girl herself at the City Poor Farm. From her present statement it appears that the outrage was committed in June last by a full blooded negro employed at the same house as herself. He accomplished his purpose by violence and then threatened her with death if she opposed him, showing her a revolver with which he promised to shoot her in case she told. Influencing her by these threats he violated her person three times, and she, as she says, was so frightened that she did not dare to even tell her employer. In October she came to this city accompanied by her aunt and uncle from Irvin's Station and with them went to the Mayor's office. She affirms now that she had no intention of making any information against the negro but only desired permission to go to the City Poor Farm. It is certain that she made no request of the Mayor except to be sent to the Farm, and when her aunt insisted on her making an information, she positively refused, still fearing, as she alleges, the revenge of the negro. She was sent to Mr. Fortune, Overseer of the Poor, but was informed that she could not gain immediate admission to the Farm, as she had not resided sufficiently long in the city. She therefore accepted the offer of a gentleman who out of pity for the girl, would give her a situation as servant in his family for a time. She remained at his house until Tuesday last, when, on her friends promising to bear the expenses of her maintainance, she was sent to the Poor Farm to remain until her child shall be born. Mayor McCarthy, after the girl had refused to accede to her aunt's request to make an information, consulted with two prominent lawyers, and their decision was that but a poor case could be made out, and therefore the friends were not advised to insist on an information. We give these statements in order that all parties may stand right on the record.

Amusements.

Max Strakosch's company of seventy-five first class artists, the principals of which are Mesdames Ghioni and Strakosch, M'lle. Pauline Canissa, Signors Irfre, Marra, Errani, Susini, Sarti and Coletti, having engaged to appear at the "Opera House," in this city, will inaugurate their season of six nights on Monday evening next, when will be presented Verdi's Masterwork "Il Trovatore," with a cast which will embrace the strength of the company, supported by a powerful chorus and double orchestra, to be followed on Tuesday with the new opera which had a run in New York of thirty consecutive nights "Crispeno E la Comare, or the Cobbler and the Fairy." On Wednesday and Thursday evenings the operatic and much talked of "L' Africaine." This opera requiring elaborate scenic effects, the principal portion of the plot represented is occurring on board of a large ship. The director of the company will, on this occasion, introduce the arrangement, which has been painted expressly in New York. On Friday evening Donizetta's opera Lucretia Borgia and to close De Auber's newly arranged Ira Diavolo.

As will be seen by reference to our advertising columns the sale of secured seats for the season only, commences on Thursday at 8 A. M., and for single nights on Friday same time at Messrs. C. C. Mellor & Co.'s Music Store, 81 Wood street.

MASONIC HALL.—The Fakir Vishnu opened to a densely packed audience last night at Masonic Hall. His performance of truly wonderful tricks excelled anything in the line we ever witnessed, and fully sustained the high reputation which preceded him. Some of the feats of legerdemain were marvelous, and all attempts to discover a clue as to how they were done, were useless. At the conclusion of the performance a number of valuable and substantial gifts were distributed amongst the audience, Miss Anna James, Second street, and Mary O. Clark, Robinson street, Allegheny, bearing away the chief prizes, which were very elegant and valuable. Go early to-night if you would secure a good seat.

NEW OPERA HOUSE.—Quite a large and fashionable audience greeted Miss Helen Western, last evening, at the Opera House, she appearing in the character of Don Ceaser de Bazan. She has always been very popular here, and no doubt the present will prove quite a successful engagement. A very good bill is offered to-night.

PITTSBURGH THEATRE.—This old resort of pleasure seekers is drawing crowded houses and the performances are well received by those who attend. The performers are all good, and as a cheap place of amusement there is nothing which will approach it in the city.

Much interest is manifested in the result to-day, for the Champion Skater of America. The beautiful medal is being prepared by Mr. John Stevenson, of Market street and we can assure our readers the contest will be a very close one, as the best skaters in America are present to take part in the contest. Among the contestants we will name, the world renowned John Engler, the tutor of the celebrated Jackson Haines, now skating before the Emperor of Russia, we also mention Mr. Wm. H. Bishop, the champion of the New York Skating Club, who for grace and elegance and poetry of motion cannot be equalled. We will also mention Mr. Collie Curtis, of Chicago, and Mr. Goodrich of Chicago, also Capt. Miner, of Detroit. The last three named gentlemen came to us very highly recommended by the papers of Detroit, Chicago, St. Louis and New York. We would say to our readers, go very early to the Central to-day if you want standing room.

Loose Talk and its Consequences.—There was a rumor upon the streets yesterday that a well known gentleman had succeeded in getting himself into a peck of trouble by a too free use of a vulgar tongue. He was at a ball and passed the remark that one of the ladies in attendance was not virtuous. She charged him before witnesses to retract his words, but he answered in an abusive manner, and failed to apologize. She is about bringing suit for slander against the maligner, and he is endeavoring to settle the affair with money, offering $1,000 as atonement for his rash words. The lady indignantly refuses the offer and is determined to punish her traducer for his rash talk and judgment.

Premature Baldness—To a lady, is frightful. The unexpected discovery of a gray hair where none should exist is enough to make one's hair stand on end "Like quills upon the fretful porcupine" We don't like to grow old, and we still less like to have false evidence thereof before the fact occurs. A judicious care of this beautiful covering of the head, a thorough treatment with "Barrett's Vegetable Hair Restorative," has saved many from the horrors of the appearance of old age.

Testimonials of its efficacious results are exceedingly numerous. The afflicted should not fail to try it.

Allegheny Soldiers' League.—A regular meeting of the Allegheny Soldiers' League was held last evening at their room in Davis' Hall, Allegheny, Adjt. A. P. Callow in the chair. Nine new members were enrolled. A committee of three, consisting of Messrs. A. P. Callow, John G. Brown and Joseph R. Oxley was appointed to draw up an act to be presented to the Legislature to procure a charter for the Association. The meeting then adjourned to meet on next Tuesday evening at their new hall on Federal street, between Lacock street and the railroad depot.

Expensive Ice.—Yesterday afternoon, as a cask of choice wine was being hoisted to the upper story of Mr. J. M. Fulton's drug store, on the corner of Fifth and Smithfield streets, the rope broke and the cask fell to the pavement, breaking in pieces, and the wine ran down the street. It froze into a broad and long sheet of rather expensive ice.

Vacancy Supplied.—At a meeting of the Central Board of Education, held on Saturday evening last, Mr. Bancroft, Principal of the Fifth Ward Public Schools, was elected Professor of Mathematics, to supply the vacancy in the faculty of the High School, created by the death of Professor W. W. Dickson.

Another Waif.—On Saturday morning a fine male infant was found in the Ninth ward, on the door-steps of a prominent wholesale liquor dealer on Liberty street. The little estray was taken care of, and yesterday transferred to the City Poor Farm. No clue to its parentage.

Carpenters' Union.—The journeymen carpenters of this city held an informal meeting on Monday and resolved to organize a Protective Union. This branch of industry is the only one that has no organization in this city.

Received His Commission.—James Lindsey, Esq., Alderman elect from the Sixth ward, has received his commission from the Governor. We have no doubt but that Mr. Lindsay will make an efficient magistrate.

Assault and Battery.—Justice Arent, of of Reserve township, yesterday committed for Court, in default of $300 bail, Herman Oehme, charged on oath of Margaret Oehme with assault and battery.

Larceny of Wine.—On Monday night a cask of Port Wine was stolen from the premises of Messrs. Schmidt & Friday, in the Fifth ward, on Penn street, above Canal. Yesterday morning the cask was found across the street with several holes bored in it and all the wine except about a gallon gone. The wine was worth about five dollars per gallon, and the loss therefore amounts to considerable. The thieves are unknown.

Conjugal.—Eliza Stewart, residing in a shanty on Spring alley, Fifth ward, made information before Alderman Taylor, yesterday, charging her husband, John Stewart, with assault and battery. She states that John accused her of criminal intimacy with other men, and immediately took after her, striking her with a club. The accused was arrested and committed for Court.

Choked to Death.—Last night, as a colored man, residing in the Sixth ward, was eating his supper with the family, he was observed to spring back from the table, struggling violently, and died in a few moments thereafter, having been choked to death, as is supposed, with a piece of beefsteak which he was eating.

Appointed.—Capt. W. B. Cook has been appointed by the Governor as Notary Public in this city, in the place of Jas. Onslow, Esq., resigned, and has opened an office at No. 93 Diamond street.

Prolific.—The wife of Mr. William Worley, residing about a mile south of Cadiz, on the Wheeling road, gave birth lately to four living children, two of whom, however, have since died.

Good for Titusville.—Titusville has a new Union School, which opened last Monday week, with an attendance of over three hundred pupils.

Gone.—Yesterday morning at 4 o'clock, Coroner William Clawson and "another man" left the city for Harrisburg on a business trip.

MONTGOMERY, Jan. 29.—Both houses of the Alabama Legislature are earnestly discussing the Constitutional Amendment.

A test vote has been taken, which seems to indicate that Mobile will soon be the capital of Alabama.

NEW YORK, Jan. 29, 1867.

The Herald's correspondence from the principal cities in the South, indicate a general reaction, politically among the Southern people.

One of the means in use among the Virginians to alleviate suffering among widows and orphans, is a huge lottery and gift enterprise. Among the gifts which it is proposed to give away is the residence of Jeff. Davis in Richmond, now in possession of the Government.

United States Senator Campbell, from South Carolina, defended Horace Greeley, the negro lately convicted of the murder of R. S. Rhett.

From Nashville, the indications are, that no election for Representatives will be held in time for the Fortieth Congress. Governor Brownlow will wait until August before he orders an election, losing, if necessary, all representation in the first session, so that he may take advantage of the colored vote, which, it seems certain, will be legalized by that time.

The Market for Sperm Oil.

NEW BEDFORD, MASS., Jan. 29.—A cable dispatch received here from London to-day, says the market has been cleared of sperm oil at £135 sterling per ton—an advance of £8 since the 16th inst. In this market 650 bbls. of sperm oil sold yesterday at $245 per ton.

The Pittsburgh Gazette

WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 30, 1867.

THE MISSION of Assistant Secretary SEWARD and Admiral PORTER, which has elicited much speculation, is now explained to be the purchase of the Bay of Samana, in the island of San Domingo, as a naval station. The bay is eight miles broad, and has an inland stretch of forty miles. The town of Barbara is situated on one of its shores.

IF any man inclines to the belief that the reasons given by the President for disapproving the Colorado bill are the real reasons which controlled his action, let him recall the fact that the Colorado Senators were invited to the Presidential mansion, at the last session, and assured them the bill should be approved if they would support Mr. Johnson's Policy.

AS THE POPE has forbidden the American Minister and such of his fellow countrymen as may be domiciled in Rome to worship GOD according to Protestant usages, inside the city walls, it is most proper the legation should be relinquished. Congress, in taking measures to this end, will meet the just expectation of the great majority of the American people.

MAJOR GENERAL THOMAS is a Virginian. [illegible] he declared before the Con[illegible] Committee that "outrages [illegible] pon the freedmen by white [illegible] are not punished, and there is no prospect for justice for the blacks before the Courts." He further declared that the only remedy was "a supervisory military power. Cavillers at Congress should ponder these strong expressions.

ON FRIDAY LAST Mr. JONATHAN BIBBER, of Berks county, was convicted of misdemeanor in refusing, a Judge of Elections, to allow SAMUEL RINERT, a deserter from company G, 74th, P. V., to vote. In this he simply did his duty under the law, and in obedience to the proclamation of the Sheriff. Governor GEARY, upon the facts of the case being laid before him, pardoned Mr. BIBBER before sentence was pronounced upon him.

SOME time ago, when President Johnson commenced removing Republicans from office because "they would not bow down and worship the image he had set up," the Conservatives were delighted with the doctrine and discipline of "rotation." Since the Senate, in the exercise of its just authority, has begun to send the sycophants on their wanderings, the Conservatives have lost all relish for "rotation." They regard it as the chief abomination of these times.

LAST SPRING AND SUMMER the Democrats and Conservatives found a good deal of solid satisfaction in denouncing Congress, and in predicting that the people, at the elections then approaching, would stamp it with reprobation. The elections came, and the people did no such thing. Congress was emphatically approved. All the advanced Radicals were re-nominated and re-elected. Only the Conservatives and half-hearted Radicals were dropped. For a time the abuse of Congress was silenced. Recently, however, it has been renewed. In view of the undeniable facts, we submit that the real point of objection is not against Congress, but against Popular Government. The objectors do not want the people to govern, but only an insignificant faction.

THE STATE DEBT.

Bonds of Pennsylvania, to the sum of $23,000,000, are past due and unpaid. The State Treasurer has endeavored on several occasions to purchase part of them with moneys belonging to the Sinking Fund, but has entirely failed. The owners preferred to hold on, rather than seek new investments. Nevertheless, the fact that the bonds are over-due, has been made the occasion of reproach against the Commonwealth by outsiders.

Senator CONNELL, of Philadelphia, acting upon the suggestion of Treasurer KEMBLE, has brought forward a bill to authorize a new six per cent. loan to cancel the old bonds. Five millions of the new bonds are to be payable after five and within ten years; eight millions after ten and within fifteen years. These bonds are to be sold to the highest bidder, but not below par, the old bonds to be receivable in payment. The old bonds are below par, but the bill should distinctly say they should be taken at not less than par. This would be to exchange new bonds for old ones, leaving the holder in just as good condition as he now is.

The old bonds are mostly five per cents., but the interest was payable in gold, and was actually so paid until the premium of coin ran up to a fearful point. Since then the interest has been paid in greenbacks. In raising the rate of interest to six per cent., it should be fixed beyond dispute, that the interest will be paid in currency.

THE JUDICIARY.

The Rebellion that was beaten in the field has taken refuge behind the Supreme Bench, and is rapidly recovering all it lost with large additions. The judicial decisions recently made wrest the sword of victory from loyal hands and give it up to traitors. Instead of dominion over eleven States, they have a prospect of governing the whole thirty-eight. Nor has the worst yet been done that the Judges have a mind to do. They soon mean to declare the Constitutional Amendment abolishing slavery null and void, on the ground that the restored States had not been restored to representation when that proposition was acted upon. When this shall be done only the President's Proclamation of emancipation will stand between four millions of black people and their re-enslavement. Considering how far the Court has already gone in reprobating the use of military authority for the most vital purposes, it is not unreasonable to infer that the validity of the Proclamation will next be impeached and denied. Then the reaction will be completed; the deposed pro-slavery dynasty will be restored, and come back without having either learned or forgotten anything.

This is not written under the inspiration of passion, or from a desire to bring the judiciary into contempt. It is doing that about as fast as its worst enemy can wish. But a sober review of facts and a careful calculation of tendencies, force the conclusion on us that the chief perils of the nation, now and for two or three years to come, are to be apprehended from the Supreme Court. In pro-slavery times that tribunal was an implacable enemy to Amelioration, to Progress and to Liberty. It was always, and with appaling venom, on the side of Oppression, Abuse and Reaction. It made marvellous efforts to put out all the lights of the nineteenth century, and bring back the darkness of the Middle Ages. That succession of Southern leaders who, for the long period of thirty years, contrived and plotted to bring on the Rebellion and make it successful, had no difficulty in getting from the court of last resort, whatever decisions they desired. Their influence over that bench seems to be now as absolute as it was the year before the war broke out. The habit of mischievous acquiescence in traitorous requirements has become so inveterate, it is almost impossible for a federal Judge to stand erect in the presence of a Southern oligarch. The contamination seems to be in the gowns that the Judges wear, and to be so virulent as to strike through body and soul of the wearer, no matter where he was born or under what influences reared.

What a million of armed rebels could not do, ten begowned old men, with their quiddits and precedents, are likely to accomplish. They set both Congress and the people at defiance in their efforts to give the control of the government to the men who sought its life. Did hundreds of thousands of loyal men die in vain? Let every citizen fully consider what is transpiring, and then answer the question for himself.

REPRESENTATIVE GOVERNMENT.

Shortly after the October election, last fall, the anxiety of certain influential republicans that the choice of a United States Senator should result conformably to their desires, led them to resort to schemes for controlling the votes of members of the Legislature utterly repugnant to the elementary principles of popular institutions. The design was not to let the members find out the wishes of their respective constituencies by normal and approved methods, and be responsible afterwards for remissnesses or short-comings, but to substitute the determinations of a comparatively few active individuals for the duly ascertained will of the whole people. Against these schemes we felt constrained to enter an urgent protest.

Since then the Senatorial election has been held, and from various quarters complaints are made that particular members voted in contradiction of the known preferences of the large majority of the Republicans of their respective districts; of instructions regularly and fairly given; and of their own pledges, registered before being nominated, and as a condition precedent thereto; repeated during the canvass, and voluntarily renewed after being carried triumphantly into office. It does not concern us to inquire, in this connection, for whom these delinquent members of Assembly gave their votes for Senator. If the facts are as stated they are guilty of a flagrant breach of duty, which covers them with infamy, and should prevent their election in time to come to offices either of honor or profit.

Here let it be understood that we are far from affirming that a Representative is always bound to yield compliance with the desires or demands of his constituents, even if they chance to be perfectly unanimous. Constituencies are not infallible. The voice of the multitude, or of the whole people, is not always the voice of GOD. Sometimes it is the voice of the Evil One. Whenever, through defect in knowledge or by the sway of unworthy passions, a constituency desire a result in contravention of immutable right, the representative is under the weightiest obligations to refuse and resist; in supreme cases at the most immanent dazard or direful cost to himself. Pilate had no right to crucify JESUS, no matter how importunate and unanimous were priests and people.

The case under consideration does not fall into this category. Here was a simple question of preference between two or more candidates or aspirants to a high place. We do not deny but the members, one or all, in the strictness of the letter, had a legal right to discard and shut out of sight, any wish but their own. Such is one aspect of the relation existing between a representative and those by whom he is accredited. On the other hand, the people have a right of preference, in the very essence of things, in the selection of a National Senator, and if their wishes are contemptuously ignored and defied, they have a legal remedy in their hands which they ought always to apply. This remedy consists in not trusting the unfaithful representatives again.

Each member who, in the Senatorial election disregarded the desires of his constituents—much more, who deliberately disobeyed their clear and regular instructions—was guilty of a flagrant violation of the spirit and intent of Government by the People. Between his conduct and that of Napoleon III. in usurping all the functions of Government, there is no difference in kind, but only a difference in degree. In republics the people are Sovereign, and within the limitations specified above, their representatives ought to do as they prefer. How else can they fulfill the idea of representation?

The recusant members are clearly guilty of a breach of trust. They are unfaithful public servants. Not answerable in Courts of law, they are amenable to the grand assize of the people. If the wronged constituencies take no notice of the affront put upon them they will do a serious injury to popular government, not only by weakly condemning past offences, but by inviting repetitions of them. Let the delinquents be held to responsibility.

IT will be remembered, a few months ago, that a party of women broke open the rum shops of Greenfield, Ind., and destroyed the contents. They had taken the idea into their heads to effect at one stroke, a temperance reform. But the liquor dealers conspired and sued the fair rioters for damages, coming out barely successful, receiving the trifling verdict of $625, from a jury which held out eighteen hours before they could determine upon the punishment of the ladies.

THE perpetrator of the horrible murder of the two old ladies at Auburn, Me., it is thought, has been arrested in the person of a Frenchman. The evidence against him is very strong, though circumstantial. The main points were his appearance in the neighborhood on the night of the murder, and the tracks in the snow about the house made by one of his boots, which lacked a heel.

ISAAC KITTINGER, of Racine, Wisconsin, procured a jug of whisky from which he freely imbibed, and laid down near a burning log to sober up. Both his legs were burned off before he realized the fact. A good temperance sermon for others but a fearful one to him.

CONGRESS is getting lectured on all sides for its bad manners. Why not lecture the people for not selecting gentlemen to represent them?

VALLANDIGHAM rejoiceth muchly in the recent decisions of the Supreme Court, and has published a card to tell the world so. Poor fellow! He was deprived of satisfaction in the downfall of the Confederacy and may as well enjoy his laugh now.

A MOBILE paper says: "Night before last Mr. Harrington shot at Mr. Woodson and killed Mr. Farragut. Such accidents as this are not uncommon." Happy reporter who can "do up" a horrible affair in three lines.

THE rebel element of Baltimore have nominated Robert T. Banks for Mayor. The Radicals, who look upon the ordered election as an usurpation on the part of the Legislature, will not nominate.

IN the different national cemetries throughout the country there are buried 341,670 soldiers, whereof 138,909 can never be identified.

THERE were only eighty-five deaths during the past week in Cincinnati. The cholera has entirely disappeared from that city.

A BUFFALO lecture committee threaten to sue Rev. Henry Ward Beecher for damages, he failing to keep an engagement.

THE small pox is raging fearfully at Chatanooga.

THE CURRENCY.

EDITORS GAZETTE:—Absence from town has prevented an earlier acknowledgment of your courtesy in giving so prominent a place to my article on the currency question in your issue of the 23d inst., and also for the fairness and freedom from mere dispute shown in your comments thereon. The evident desire which you show to arrive at the truth induces me to trouble you with another brief note on some points not touched in my former one, viz:

1. What is a "redundant currency?"
2. What is the true cause and what the true cure for a "redundant currency?"

If every dollar of our present national currency were to-day by some alchemy, converted into gold, not one outcry against "redundant currency" would be heard. A golden seal would close every mouth now vocal with the discordant expression. The same would be true it it were exchangeable for gold at will. The discordant note is therefore a false note as well. They who make it do not mean it. They mean irredeemable currency when they say "redundant," and don't stop to notice the difference between the two expressions, which have no necessary relationship, much less identity.

A historical fact or two will set, or ought to set, this matter right. The currency of 1776 was a mere nothing in amount compared with that of 1866, and yet while ours is nearly par, theirs became absolutely worthless. Redundancy, therefore, has had nothing to do with depreciation. It has resulted solely and exclusively from a lack of confidence in the ability and willingness of the government to redeem it. Redundant currency, therefore, is only the false name for "depreciated currency."

If there is more currency afloat than the Government can redeem, it should, of course, in some way, be withdrawn, but this is not the case; besides, whatever England may get along with, where wealth and power, like intelligence, are limited to the few, a contracted currency will no more answer for the people of this country than would a little patch of land of the size of the British islands. Our people must have a larger circulation than ever before, or than they have now, in order to transact their business, and "pay as they go," and thus avoid the old "credit system" in vogue under all contracted currency regimes. I do not doubt that our currency to-day would be as good as gold but for the efforts of the villains whom you mention as "Heavy operators anxious for a storm—wreckers of trade and commerce—whose days of harvest are when their neighbors are destroyed." War against these wreckers is the true cure for a depreciated currency, or rather, an important part of it. The other part lies in war against the wreckers of our manufactures, those British free-traders whose gold can be had for our currency the very moment we cease paying them our gold for their goods.

FIFTEEN YEARS AGO, HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS was struggling into notice against the prejudices which everything new, however excellent, is doomed to encounter. TO DAY it stands at the head of all the tonic and alterative preparations in existence. Its celebrity has evoked many imitations but NO RIVALS. Physicians pronounce it the only SAFE STIMULANT that has ever been introduced into the sick chamber. In the Hospitals of the Army and Navy, the surgeons find it the very best tonic for convalescents, and report it as invaluable for sustaining the vigor of troops on the march, as a remedy for scurvy and all scorbutic affections, and as the only specific for sea sickness. California and Australia have emphatically endorsed it as the MINER'S MEDICINE par excellence, and in Spanish America and all the tropical climates, it is considered the only reliable antidote to epidemic fever.

There is no mystery about the causes of its success. It is the only stomachic and alterative in which are combined the grand requisites of a mild, pure and unvitiated vegetable stimulant, with the finest selection of tonic, anti-bilious anti-scorbutic, aperient, and depurative herbs, plants, roots, and barks that have ever been intermixed in a medicinal preparation.

It is also proper to state that the Bitters are sold exclusively in glass, and never, under any circumstances, by the gallon or the barrel. Impostors and imitators are abroad, and the only safeguard the public has against them is to see that the Bitters they buy bear the engraved label and note of hand of Messrs. Hostetter & Smith, and the Government stamp over the cork of the bottle.

TO CAPITALISTS—Lucrative BUSINESS FOR SALE.—The undersigned offers for sale and immediate transfer the Lease, Fixtures, Good Will and Stock of one of the leading houses in the West combining two separate branches of business, either of which can be carried on independent of the other; one a very large cash retail business almost without a limit; the other a specialty, with but one competitor, and capable of being very largely extended, and in which no capital is required.

The profits of the business for 1866 were $43,000, and it is comparatively in its infancy, being thoroughly legitimate, and requiring but energy and attention, it is to the man of capital at once a rare and special chance.

"School Rules" Again.

MESSRS. EDITORS:—We were pleased to notice that our previous article on this subject had attracted some attention, and that in the right quarter—among the teachers. We think the rule in question need only be understood to be detested, and a little reflection on the part of the teachers will soon lead to its abolishment. Hence we were pleased to read the article signed "Teacher" in your issue of Monday.

We think the writer of the communication, however, misunderstood the motives which dictated our article. He seems to think it was prompted by a spirit of fault-finding. Such, we assure him, was by no means the case. He certainly cannot deprecate more highly than we do, the practice of grumbling and fault-finding in which parents have very frequently been too prone to indulge. We believe, as a general rule, the government of our common schools is rather deserving of commendation than censure.

As far as our observation goes the teachers are well qualified for their positions. We know that in the borough where we reside (Manchester) there could not be found a more able and effective corps of teachers. And so we believe it is in most of our Public Schools throughout the cities. However, this system of government is not absolutely perfect, and we do not think that a suggestion offered in a kindly manner ought to be called fault-finding.

But "Teacher" thinks the question of this impropriety of such a rule has two sides to it. Well, let us examine the argument on his side. First, in regard to asking the children at home when some mischief has been done if they are guilty. Now we say this case is not a parallel one. If a parent were to adopt a rule which it was almost impossible for a child to keep, imposing a severe punishment for its non-observance, and with such inducements to falsify, require the child to criminate himself, we should say that he was either not a true parent or understood very little of human nature. And yet this is precisely what is done in our schools where this rule is adopted. Children whose principles are not formed, in many instances too young to understand anything about moral obligations, have thus placed before them a temptation to falsify almost too strongly to be resisted. However, true as it may be, that there are some children that will tell the truth, under such circumstances—children who are naturally truthful—yet it cannot be denied that there are others to whom this temptation cannot be presented without doing them a very great injury in leading them to acquire a habit of untruthfulness. The direful consequences attendant upon this habit who can estimate? Like any other evil habit, when once formed it is almost impossible to correct it. It grows with the growth of the child, and strengthens as his years increase, until it becomes almost part of his nature. How many a young man of good abilities is unfitted for holding a position of honor or trust on account of dishonesty, which has been instilled into his nature by an evil course of training in early life! How much of the dishonesty and untruthfulness which our merchants so often find in their employees is directly traceable to their early training! How careful then we should be in the instruction of the young. We cannot give the subject too much attention, and parents and teachers in adopting rules for the government of children should be especially careful that they adopt only those which inculcate correct principles.

The second instance in regard to a court of justice offering a premium for perjury is, it seems to us, foreign to the subject. We may be dull comprehension, but we confess we cannot see what revalency it has to the question under discussion. If, in a court of justice, a criminal were set at liberty on a denial of his guilt, or punished, if he confessed it, then the case would be a parallel one. As it is, however, we see no points of comparison.

But "Teacher" wishes us to furnish a few rules for governing a school—"rules which we know by experience to be successful." Well we would simply say that teaching is not our profession, and we cannot, therefore, be expected to furnish anything on this subject from actual experience. Besides it doesn't follow if we criticise a system of school discipline that we should be able to furnish a better. We merely show the defects it is the duty of the teachers to remedy them. A man may see a defect in a steam engine, and yet not be able to construct one or even remedy the defect. This is the engineers duty, not his.

The Rights of Travellers.

The Philadelphia Ledger has published several judicious articles on this subject, in an endeavor to awaken the travelling public to a knowledge of their rights and the determination to assert them. It says, remarking upon the mismanagement of roads during the recent snow storm, that every person who has travelled by railway, and who has happened to be upon a train that was detained by accident or obstruction on the road, will understand how difficult it is to get information at such times. It is a vain task generally to ask the conductor or the engineer or the brakesmen, or any one else, about the causes of the delay, unless these are visible, or whether the detention is likely to last for a few minutes or for twenty-four hours. On such occasions the lips of the railroad men seem to be tightly sealed up, and the natural and proper desire of the passengers to know what is the matter and what is going on, or whether they are to get on at all, is entirely disregarded. There seems to be no reason for such a churlish policy. It does no good, and very often does harm. When the railroad men find that an accident or any unforeseen obstruction to travel is likely to delay a train all day or all night, there can certainly be no harm in letting the passengers understand the matter, for they are not at all likely to rise in revolt and take forcible possession of the train. On the contrary, such a proceeding would cause passengers to have more confidence in and respect for railway management; for they would then see that there is fair and open dealing, and not a deliberate design to keep them in the dark, as if their feelings and interests were of no account whatever. Besides, when passengers understand fully what is likely to be the character of the delay, they can accommodate themselves to it, and either remain on the train and take the chances of getting forward, or else leave the train and try to get other conveyance, or else take temporary shelter in any place that happens to be at hand. The matter is one that requires wholesale reform, and the officers of railway corporations should instruct all their employees in charge of trains to change their present policy and to deal frankly and honestly with the travelling public, by giving them full information on such occasions.

Horrible.

We copy the following from the Cario Democrat. The body referred to, probably that of the man who was drowned at Wheeling, some time since. "A most shocking sight was presented in the river in front of our city yesterday. The dead body of a man had become frozen fast in the floating ice, and when it passed here there had gathered an immense flock of sea-gulls around the corpse, and they were feeding off of it, and fighting over it. The sight was enough to curdle the warm blood in the veins of the beholders. Some were perched upon the body, gorging themselves as they tore the frozen flesh from the bones; others flapped around in the cold air, and others were hopping about on the floating fields of ice, awaiting their turn at the repast. The awful spectacle floated by with the current of the river, and undisturbed passed from view."

The Public school at Pithole has as many students as can well be accommodated, and the number is constantly increasing.

The Opera House, Its Winner and Mr. Crosby.

Mr. A. H. Lee, the winner of the Opera House, has been to Chicago, sold the fruits of his "gamboleering" to Crosby, and retired to Prairie Du Rocher, with $200,000 added to his bank account. He is described as a middleaged gentleman, rather retiring and modest in his demeanor, but when spoken to, of a most kindly and courteous disposition. He is middle sized, stout built, with gray hair, and a countenance beaming with good humor. To look at him one would say he is just the kind of man who deserved to draw the Opera House. There is a touch of simplicity in his manner, and he appeared to be quite bewildered, and half angry, half amused at the astonishing liberties which the different journals had taken with him and of the various biographies which were given, not one of which, he says, are correct. He has been engaged in the commission business for fifteen years at St. Louis, and now lives in a pleasant retirement at Prairie Du Rocher.

Mr. Lee thinks that Mr. Crosby is a very proper man. So, in a published card to the Chicago papers he declares:

It was my wish and request that I might come here and transact my business with Mr. Crosby without becoming the object of unpleasant notoriety, and without having my name heralded in the newspapers, and I feel deeply indebted to him for the considerate manner in which the request has been observed, especially as it has cost him some embarrassment, as well as occasioned invidious comment.

Feeling that the Opera House should properly be owned by Mr. Crosby, I made him the offer to sell it to him for two hundred thousand dollars, and the offer was accepted in a spirit which was most gratifying, and the money promptly paid to me. My connection with the Opera House having thus happily terminated.

I am very respectfully and sincerely yours. A. H. LEE.

The Chicago Tribune thinks it may be interesting to look over the balance sheet now that the grand operation is completed, and see how the account stands:

U. H. Crosby, Dr. to 210,000 tickets at $5 00	$1,050,000
Cr., by 30,000 tickets, not sold	$150,000

Total profit on the undertaking	$650,000

Important Patent Case.

The important suit of Asa Whitney, of Philadelphia, against A. L. Mowry, of Cincinnati, occupied the time of the Cincinnati U. S. Court, during the last week, and is not yet finished. The plaintiff claims that the letters patent of Mr. Whitney for annealing cast iron car wheels have been infringed by Mr. Mowry, who also has letters patent for the same object, and has been extensively engaged in the manufacture of car wheels. The defendant claims that the patented process of Whitney, if practical, will destroy the chill of the wheel. A great amount of depositions have been taken on both sides. Among others, Major William Wade, being connected with the Ordnance Department of the United States Army, and Joseph Kaye, Esq., foreman of the celebrated Fort Pitt Iron Works, of Pittsburgh, testify on behalf of the defense, both of whom assert that Whitney's process is not new and is not infringed by Mowry's. Edward S. Renwick, Esq., scientific expert of New York, and others, testify exactly to the opposite, and that Mowry's process is included in Whitney's.

Hotel Burned.—The Union Hotel, Wilkesbarre, was burned on Saturday afternoon last. Loss, $3,100; insurance $1,600. The origin of the fire is a mystery. It was discovered between the siding and the lath, which savors of matches and mice.

MY POLITICAL PLATFORM.

Kind friends and patrons all, I ask your close attention,
I have a stock of Boots on hand, thousands of different sizes.
Which I can well afford to sell at the very lowest prices.
A lot of Boots and Shoes, of French and German leather,
Which none would be afraid to wear, in coldest winter weather.
My Ladies' Boots are of the best, it really is surprising,
That I can sell so very cheap, while prices still are rising.
My stock is of the very best the trade did ever produce,
My Shoes are far the cheapest since the prices I did reduce.
Then seek your own advantage and come to me and buy,
And when my stock is all sold out I'll get a fresh supply.
Since money is so plenty now, and greenbacks in good credit,
Do come and buy some bran new Shoes, you never will regret it.
Cold winter now is at the door, when the old year has ended,
And if your shoes have sprung a leak, do come and get them mended.
Then call at the popular Shoe Palace Emporium, Nos. 26 and 28 Fifth street.

FINANCE AND TRADE.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE,
TUESDAY, Jan. 29, 1867.

The New York stock quotations to-day, as reported by Robinson, McClean & Co., were as follows: Gold, 134⅝; Eighty-one bonds, 107¼; Five Twenties, old 107; Five Twenties, '65, 105⅝; Five Twenties, new, 104⅜; Seven Thirties, 104⅜; New York Central, 96¼@96½; Erie Railroad, 52⅞@52¼; Reading, 100⅞@101; Michigan Southern R. R., 67⅞@68; Illinois Central, 111@111½; Cleveland& Pittsburgh, 76⅝@76½; Toledo, 112@114; Chicago and Rock Island, 91½@91⅝; Mariposa, 33@33½; Pittsburgh, Fort Wayne & Chicago, 93⅞@94; Chicago and Northwestern, 43½@44¼; Wabash, 38⅝; Quicksilver, 35@35½.

The failure of McCormick & Callender, oil dealers, in Chicago, was announced in our telegraph news on Monday. This firm is well known to many of our oil dealers, and at one time purchased considerable quantities of oil here for the Chicago market. The immediate cause of their suspension is not stated, but it is fair to presume they have been speculating, and not being able to stand under the heavy depreciation in the value of oil, were forced to go under. As Cleveland has monopolized the free oil trade, we are of the opinion that Pittsburgh will lose but little, if anything, by this failure.

There is but little doing in our local stock market, and there are no new features worthy of special notice. Rumors of another failure are current, but, as yet, they are not well authenticated.

—In financial circles the bill to substitute legal-tender notes for national bank currency, introduced into the House by Mr. Randall, of this State, forms and has formed for several weeks the main topic of discussion. The banks are certainly much alarmed, and are bringing to bear upon Congress all the influence they can command to prevent its passage. It is not believed however (says the Philadelphia Press,) that the bill can pass the House, as it is entirely too revolutionary in its objects and tendencies. The national finances have been for some time in a very critical condition, but relief is not to be expected by so sweeping a measure as that of destroying the national banks at one blow, as is now proposed. The chief argument urged by the supporters of Mr. Randall's measure is that it will save to the Government the interest which it now pays annually of $18,000,000. But taking the Comptroller's report just made to Congress, we find the circulation of those banks $298,000,000, on which is paid a tax of	$2,800,000

Their deposits, $596,500,000; tax	2,980,000
License paid	297,500
Capital above amount of United States bonds, $87,000,000; paying	435,000
Tax on dividends	2,400,000
Total	$8,912,000

Add to this amount of actual income the services rendered, as shown by the comptroller's report, and, which, at the lowest valuation, he places above $3,000,000, and we have at once, in plain facts and figures, an amount over $12,000,000 yearly paid to the Government. It is to be hoped that Congress will give the bill their earnest attention, and dispose of it at once, and thus relieve the business community of the anxiety which prevails lest it should possibly receive the sanction of that body.

The possibility of a continued contraction of the currency to the extent of four millions a month, as authorized by existing legislation, has prompted the inquiry as to how long the National banks can stand it, and still keep on hand 25 per cent of the deposits in that currency. It is estimated that it would be possible for them to preserve their relative position for about seven years, provided no other conditions of disturbance were admitted, and the compound interest notes were redeemed when due by other legal tender issues.

PITTSBURGH MARKETS.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE,
TUESDAY, January 29, 1867.

There are no new features in the produce markets worthy of special notice. The operations in all of the leading commodities are of an unimportant character, the demand being restricted almost entirely to filling orders for the jobbing trade, and the fluctuations in values are not important.

GROCERIES—The market in general is firmer, and refined Sugars are a fraction higher. We now quote at 11¾ to 13 for Cuba Sugar; 12 to 13½ for Porto Rico; Crushed, 16 to 16¾; "A" Coffee, 15½; "B" do Coffee, 15; "C" Extra, at 14¾. Rio Coffee is quoted firm at 22 to 25, for common to prime. Porto Rico Molasses 65 to 70. Carolina Rice 11¾ to 12. Teas—Green, $1 to $1,70; do Black 75 to $1,25. Syrups, 60 to $1,15—the outside figure only for fancy brands.

GRAIN—Wheat is dull and nominally unchanged. Oats—sale of 1 car at 48, and 80 sacks do at 49; small sales, in store, at 51 to 52. Corn is quiet and unchanged; small sales, in store, at 75 to 80. No. 1 Spring Barley is in demand at 90. No transactions in Rye reported; prime Ohio and Penna may be quoted at $1,20.

FLOUR—Is quiet and dull but unchanged. We continue to quote at $12,25 to 12,50 for standard Spring Wheat brands; $13,50 to 14,50 for Winter Wheat; and $16 to $7,00 for fancy St. Louis brands. Rye Flour is still quoted at $7,75 to $8,00 per bbl, and Buckwheat at $3,50 to $3,75 per cwt.

PROVISIONS—Bacon is quiet and unchanged—small sales at 12 for shoulders; 16½ to 17 for Sugar Cured Hams. Lard is quoted firm at 12½ to 13. Mess Pork steady and unchanged.

BUTTER—Is in rather better demand, especially fresh Roll of which there is but little in market. We can report a sale of 10 bbls prime at 31—may be quoted at 32 to 33, in small packages.

EGGS—Fresh packed in fair demand and none scarcely to be had—may be quoted at 38@40.

SEEDS—There is an improved demand for Flaxseed, and prices are 10@15c per bu higher—offers to buy at $2,60 to 2,65. No movement in Timothy or Clover Seeds.

HAY—Is in better demand, and with a material falling off in the arrivals, prices are higher. We can report sales of two cars prime, both to arrive, one at $25, and the other at $26.

POTATOES—Quiet and unchanged; small sales in store at 90. Sale of 1000 bush prime Peach Blows, to be delivered here in good order, at 80c per bush.

APPLES—Dull but unchanged—regular sales, in store, at $3,50 to $4,50 per bbl, as to quality.

BEANS—In rather better supply, and unchanged—$2,50 to $2,75 per bushel for prime small white.

DRIED FRUIT—Quiet but steady with regular sales in store at 9 to 10 for Apples, and 16 to 20 for Peaches—quarters and halves.

PITTSBURGH PETROLEUM MARKET

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE,
TUESDAY, January 29, 1867.

CRUDE—There is nothing new to be said about the Crude market. The only sale reported was one car load of "Smith's Ferry" at 7c, packages returned—quotations may be fairly given at 7 to 7½, packages returned, and 12 to 12½, packages included, and these may be regarded as the extremes of the market. We hear of a lot of ten thousand barrels being offered for spring delivery at 9c, with 8½ bid, and it is rumored that there was a sale of five thousand barrels to-day, for same delivery at 8¾. The ten thousand barrel lot has been on the market for several days past, and several brokers have been, and are still working at it, but, thus far, without success. It is said that Crude is held pretty firmly at the wells, though it is somewhat strange that it should be.

REFINED—There is no improvement to note in the demand for bonded oil, and while the market is dull and neglected, prices are nominally unchanged. We quote at 22 to 22½, free on board cars here, and 28 to 28½, for immediate delivery in Philadelphia; 30½ for March; 31 for April; 32 for May; 33 for June, and 34 for July. Last week the sales in the aggregate, reached several thousand barrels, at these quotations, while thus far this week, there has not been a single sale effected, and the reason for it is that but very few of our refiners care about making any more contracts ahead at present prices, and they allege that either Crude must decline, or Refined advance, before they do anything further. Free oil is quiet and unchanged.

ARRIVALS—The following arrivals of oil were reported to-day.

ALLEGHENY CATTLE MARKET.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE,
TUESDAY, Jan. 29, 1867.

CATTLE.

There was a very fair supply of cattle yesterday, though generally, the offerings were of an inferior character, there being, it is said, but one car load of good cattle on sale. Be this as it may, the market was a very hard one, the demand being restricted, both butchers and shippers buying sparingly, and compared with last week, if anything, prices were a fraction lower. A few car loads of prime shipping cattle, had there been any on sale, would have found buyers at fair prices, but there were none in market suitable for that purpose, and consequently, the great bulk of the cattle had either to be retailed or left over. As will be seen by reference to the report of sales, the best retailing cattle sold at 7¼ to 7½, and medium to inferior sold from 6 to 6½, down to 3½@4½ and 5.

SWINE.

The demand for Hogs at these yards is almost entirely of a retail character, and consequently, there are but few round lot operations to record. The transactions in the aggregate, during the past week, were about up to the usual average, and prices have undergone but little, if any change. We quote, in a retail way, at 6¼ to 7 cents, gross, for fair to good averages—7 to 7½ for extra.

SHEEP.

The supply of Sheep was rather larger this week than for some weeks past, though prime fat mutton Sheep brought good prices, 6 to 6½, gross. Z. Wolfe had 193 head—sold 36 common at 4¼. Davis reports having retailed 85 head at 4½ to 6½. Kurtz & Co., 24 head common at 3½ to 4. McPherson sold Wilson 90 head, and there were quite a number of other sales, the particulars of which we were unable to learn.

REPORTED SALES OF CATTLE.

McAllister & Carr retailed on commission for Fisher, 18 head at 4 to 6½; James Morgan 14 head at 4 to 7½. Greenwald & Kahn, 32 at 5¼ to 7½. Myers & Needy sold 18 head to Rothchilds; 20 head to Vanwert; 24 head to Herman; 29 to Baker; 22 head to Wilson; and retailed 40. L. Rothchilds, 19 head at 4 to 7½. Marks Traurman, 60 head at 5,60 to 7,50. Merrick & Doud, 21. Aull & Lafferty, 41 head at 3½ to 6¼. Verner & Hartman, 14 at 3¾ to 4½. Swartz to Carr & McAllister, 18; Shamberg wholesaled 27 head, retailed 12.

New York Financial Matters.

RIVER NEWS.

The weather continues extremely cold and it looks now as though "G. A's." predictions will be realized—that is, our rivers will remain closed until about the first of March. We know this is a hard view of the matter for our steamboatmen to contemplate, especially those of them whose funds are getting down pretty low, and there are a good many that can fairly be placed in this category, but it will doubtless be better for everybody in the end.

Another attempt was made to blow up the ice in the Allegheny river yesterday, but with the same result. We presume the parties engaged in this enterprise will now give it up in disgust.

The fact that twenty-one vessels, containing sixty thousand bales of cotton, are detained on the bar for want of water, has created considerable stir in New Orleans, and vigorous will now be made to deepen the channel. The Eclipse towboat company of New Orleans has sued the towboat Calhoun for $10,000 damages. The Calhoun recently collided with the Gladiator, and it is claimed that the collision was the result of negligence on the part of the Calhoun. The merchants of Little Rock, Ark., have established a chamber of commerce.

MOUND CITY, January 22.—The P. W. Strader yesterday succeeded in landing at Mound City, three empty coal barges, marked N. C. C., and one marked "Whale," and one boat which is new, intended to haul coal out on, as the plank for the floor and timber for apron, &c., are all on board.

CAIRO, January 27.—The gorge in the Mississippi broke loose to-day, and ice is pouring out extremely heavy. The Dance arrived last night unhurt from her long sojourn aground at Able's tow-head. The Indiana and Ames were well laden. They report that the ice is still heavy, but upstream boats may go through. Three Saint Louis boats arrived from below to-day before the gorge broke, else they would have been detained until to-morrow. They report that the main deck of the St. Cloud is covered six feet on one side, but out of water on the other. She lies straight. Chickens, live stock, furniture, and considerable freight were taken ashore. The Jennie Lewis brought up the boiler and doctor engine of the steamer Osborn. She will substitute them for her own when she reaches St. Louis. The Dance has a small lot of cotton and assorted freight. Five steamers are now loading here for New Orleans. The Ames met the Groesbeck and Kenton at Hawesville, Strader above Shawneetown, and passed the Charmer at Paducah.

The following is a list of the different steamers at Cincinnati, laid up until the resumption of navigation: Above Broadway,—Importer, Flying Eagle, Hull of the Superior, Pine Grove, St. Charles, R. C. Gray, Arabian and Belle Vernon. Between Main and Broadway—Starlight, Lizzie Hopkins, Potomac, Rebecca, Nightingale, Edinburg, Alice Dean, Emma No. 3, Lawrence, Armadillo, Leonora No. 2, Shamrock, Champion, Mary Erwin, Anglo Saxon, Robert Burns, Minneola, Huntsville, Emerald, Westmoreland, Magnolia, and Bostona. Below Vine street—United States, General Buell, Major Anderson and General Lytle. Of this list there are the following boats which are loaded and waiting for the resumption of navigation: Arabian, Emma No. 3, Lawrence, Armadillo, Mary Erwin, Champion and Emerald.

Says the Cincinnati Gazette of Monday: On Friday last everybody was jubilant over the resumption of river business. The weather was mild and pleasant, sidewalks and streets were wet with slush and snow, and the grey and sombre surcharged clouds gave to the earth showers of rain. Steamboatmen presented bright and smiling faces, merchants and shippers looked pleased, and steamboat agents would have been as happy as any of them had it not been for the action of the "Cincinnati Charitable Marine Association," leaving them all out in the wet except "ye chosen three." Crews were hired, and though there was rain over head and slush and wet under foot, all were happy as larks on a bright spring morning. This was on Friday. The succeeding day proved the falacy of "hope's flattering tale." A cold north wind prevailed, while hither and thither were scattered stray, flying snow-flakes.

PURE CALIFORNIA WINES.
GURNER & CO.,
No. 80 Cedar St., New York,

Offer for sale these valuable Wines, which are gaining public favor with astonishing rapidity, and whose unprecedented and unrivalled popularity is not without merit. They have only to be fairly tested to give them the preference over all others. As a purifier of blood they excel all other Wines, and the numerous certificates which have voluntarily been tendered from the most eminent physicians, as well as gentlemen in every position in life, are proof conclusive that these Wines are useful in all cases for which they are recommended.

The following brands are now offered by us. They comprise all the varieties now grown in the State suitable for sale:

WHITE, or HOCK WINE—Of a light straw colored, very delicate and fine flavored.

CLARET—A superior wine for table use.

ANGELICA—A rich and naturally sweet wine, much admired by ladies, and valuable in the sick chamber, as it makes fine wheys and jellies. It is a fine desert wine, and well adapted for Communion purposes.

MUSCATEL—A light colored, highly aromatic wine. Very similar to the celebrated Tokay.

PORT—Deep red color, fine flavor, and in many respects similar to the old wines of Lisbon.

GRAPE BRANDY—The pure distillation of our wines.

This is one of the most valuable combinations of a useful and an agreeable beverage that has ever been offered to the public. Millions of bottles were sold throughout the North during the last four years, and wherever introduced it has proved a welcome addition to the invalid table, the family circle, and the bachelor's sideboard. Ladies who have lost strength and appetite, and suffer from nausea, vomiting and vertigo; gentlemen who "don't feel very well" just before breakfast or dinner, whose stomachs are out of order, and whose systems are generally deranged; mothers weaning children and suffering from general debility; children of sickly nature and sour, dyspeptic constitutions; travelers who have occasion to change their water; and all who live in malarious districts and are subject to miasmatic influences, will find it one of the most valuable invigorators that can be taken.

It was used very extensively in 1861, with such general satisfaction that in offering it to the public now we deem it unnecessary to publish any of the many certificates that we have received, testifying in the very strongest terms in its favor. All that we can say is to guarantee that we will pledge ourselves to furnish an article PURE AND UNADULTERATED.

It has been given to little children suffering from weakness and weak lungs with most happy effect. One little girl, in particular, with pains in her head, loss of appetite and daily wasting consumption, on whom all medical skill has been exhausted, has been entirely restored. She began with but a teaspoonful a day. Her appetite and strength rapidly increased and she is now well.

CONSUMPTION.

Our son, JAMES PAINTER, some three years ago was afflicted with consumption of the lungs for which he was discharged from the army. He was examined by four army physicians, who all agreed that he must die with the disease. We brought him to Dr. KEYSER, 140 Wood street, (now 120 Penn street,) who, after sounding his lungs commenced to treat him, and cured him sound and well. He is now well and has been so for the past three years. Others afflicted in like manner can likewise be cured.

JAMES PAINTER.
MARY ANN PAINTER.
Temperanceville, Sept 5th, 1866.

PITTSBURGH, December 31, 1866.

A GREAT CURE BY DR. KEYSER'S PECTORAL SYRUP. I live in Peebles township, Allegheny county. I had a cough and spitting, which commenced about the 4th of February last, and continued eight months. I employed the best physicians in the country, and my cough continued unabated until early in October. At that time I was advised to try your Pectoral Cough Syrup, which I did, and after I had taken one bottle, I was entirely free from the coughing and spitting. I had despaired of ever getting well, and I think that it should be known that this valuable remedy will do for others what it has done in my case. JOHN C. LITTLE,
Witness—R. M. KERR. Peebles township.

PITTSBURGH, January 11, 1858.

DR. KEYSER:—My wife has been afflicted with a cough and difficulty of breathing for five or six years, which, for several years back, had gradually increased in violence. The complaint has been hereditary, and she had been treated by several physicians without any relief. In this state of her case I procured some of your PECTORAL COUGH SYRUP. I bought the first time a fifty cent bottle, which relieved her very much; I then called and got a dollar bottle, which cured her entirely, and she has now no trace of the former disease, except weakness. I would also state that I used the medicine myself to a cold and cough. The medicine cured me by taking one dose. I express my entire satisfaction with the medicine, and you are at liberty to publish this if you desire to do so.

WM. WILSON,
Alderman, Fifth Ward.

WHOOPING COUGH.

Below will be found a certificate from Doctor M. DUPUY, one of our most respectable dentists, in regard to Dr. Keyser's Pectoral Syrup. The Pectoral Syrup is also an infallible cure for every form of cough and cold to which we are liable.

PITTSBURGH, June 23, 1862.

DR. KEYSER:—Dear Sir: I have for a long time been opposed to advertised or patent medicines, and it is with reluctance that I recommend any of them. The consideration, however, that I am doing the community a service, induces me to overcome my objections, and to publicly recommend your Pectoral Syrup. We have kept it in our family for the last five or six years and have given it for coughs, such as are produced by colds, &c., with the effect of alleviating or entirely arresting them. During last winter our children were exposed to the infection of whooping cough, and each one of our three boys was attacked with what we believed to be that malady. We administered your Syrup liberally, and the result was, that the whooping cough lasted with neither of them more than ten or twelve days. I hope others will at least make a trial of your medicines in such cases, as we have found it beneficial. Yours,

A. DUPUY, No. 21 Wylie street.

HERNIA OR RUPTURE.

It will be observed that we have published for some time past an advertisement of Dr. George H. Keyser, of 140 Wood street, Pittsburgh, Pa. in reference to Trusses and other mechanical appliances for the cure and relief of hernia, rupture, besides various broken-down conditions of the human body which are usually beyond the reach of medication. Dr. Keyser has given this branch of the business great attention for several years past, and we think we are justified in saying that he comprehends it thoroughly. You can get at his store, Shoulder Braces for weak breasts, Elastic Stockings for varicose veins, Pile Props for the cure of Piles, and, in fact, every variety of mechanical appliance. Dr. Keyser is the inventor of a Truss for the radical cure of Hernia or Rupture, so perfect in its parts and so comfortable to the wearer, as to elicit the admiration of all who may need such an appliance.

He has recently been in communication with some of the ablest and most experienced truss surgeons in the United States, and feels satisfied that all those who have been plagued or annoyed with ill-fitting and uncomfortable trusses, can be accommodated by calling at his consulting rooms, No. 120 Penn street, or at his Medicine and Truss Depot, 140 Wood street. Office hours from eight to eleven A. M., and one to four P. M.

DEAFNESS AND THE EAR.

Many persons have rested content in the belief that skin and ear diseases, however troublesome, will wear out of themselves, or that no remedy will avail in effecting a cure; in this way many persons have suffered through half a dozen years, who might easily have been relieved at the onset in as many weeks. So also with regard to the ear, a prejudice has obtained that the ear is too delicate an organ to be treated, or as is often expressed, TAMPERED WITH; hence hundreds have thus remained deaf for the greater part of a lifetime, who might have been greatly relieved, and in many instances, completely restored to their hearing, had proper assistance been timely applied for, as may readily be seen by a perusal of the following certificate. We also take occasion to remark that the testimonial comes from a source close at hand, in Allegheny City, where, upon inquiry, any one interested can satisfy themselves of its truth.

PITTSBURGH, July 18, 1864.

DEAR SIR:—I take pleasure in adding my testimony to that of others in favor of Dr. Keyser's treatment of deafness. My son had been afflicted for five years with deafness produced from scarlet fever. At times he could not hear at all; and could only understand as we would motion to him. His speech had also become affected. Having tried other remedies without receiving any benefit, I applied to Dr. Keyser, and under his treatment he has entirely recovered, and can now hear as well as ever he did.
